

Introduction to Psychology

(SS2019)

Date: 7th April, 2025

Course Instructor(s)

Ms. Aqsa Fayyaz

Ms. Faiza Iqbal

Mr. Jani Khan

Mid-II

Total Time: 1 Hour

Total Marks: 30 Marks

Total Questions: 03

Semester: Spring-2025

Dept: Computer Science
(CS, CY)

Student Name	Roll No	Section	Student Signature
--------------	---------	---------	-------------------

CLO #1: Have a grasp over basic concepts and theoretical perspectives explaining human behavior.

Q1: Choose the correct option and write down the answers in the answer sheet. (10 Marks)

1. What is an Attitude?

- a) A temporary emotional state
- b) An evaluation of a person, object, or idea ✓
- c) A specific behavior in response to a stimulus
- d) A conscious thought process

2. What is conformity in Social Psychology?

- a) Changing one's behavior to match the responses of others due to group pressure ✓
- b) Refusing to follow social norms under any circumstances
- c) Leading a group to adopt new behaviors
- d) A genetic predisposition to agree with others

3. Which of the following best describes "Empathy" in Emotional Intelligence?

- a) Ignoring others' feelings to achieve goals
- b) Understanding and sharing the emotions of others ✓
- c) Suppressing all emotional expressions
- d) Memorizing emotional vocabulary

4. Which skill is critical for resolving conflicts effectively?

- a) Emotional suppression
- b) Active listening and empathy ✓
- c) Rigid thinking
- d) Dominating conversations

5. An individual's feelings about a topic are most closely related to the _____ component of attitude.

- a) Cognitive ✓
- b) Affective ✓
- c) Behavioral
- d) Physiological

6. A person who is careless and disorganized will rank low on which Big Five trait dimension:

- a) Agreeableness
- b) Neuroticism
- c) Conscientiousness ✓
- d) Extraversion

National University of Computer and Emerging Sciences
Karachi Campus

7. If a person says, "I always volunteer at animal shelters," this reflects which component of attitude?
 - a) Cognitive component
 - b) Affective component
 - c) Behavioral component ✓
 - d) None of the above
8. Structure of personality present at birth:
 - a) Id ✓
 - b) Superego
 - c) Ego
 - d) None of the above
9. Which of the following is an example of cognitive dissonance?
 - a) A person who loves chocolate
 - b) A person who enjoys working out regularly
 - c) A person who believes in the importance of education but skips school regularly ✓
 - d) A person who enjoys reading books
10. Milly refuses to be friends with her coworker because he has a Southern accent. Her behavior (refusing to be friends) is against her coworker based on the fact that he's from the South. This is an example of:
 - a) Prejudice
 - b) Conformity
 - c) Stereotype
 - d) Discrimination ✓

CLO #1: Have a grasp over basic concepts and theoretical perspectives explaining human behavior.

Q2: Write down the correct name of defense mechanism according to the examples given below. (5 Marks) → personality

1. When a person unconsciously blocks painful memories from awareness, they are using suppression.
2. "I only failed because the teacher hates me!" is an example of projection ✓
3. After a stressful day at work, Amit yells at his dog for barking. This is _____.
4. A smoker who says, "Cancer won't happen to me," is in _____ about the health risks.
5. An aggressive person becomes a professional boxer, channeling their impulses constructively. This is sublimation.

CLO #2: Being able to understand different aspects of human behavior and utilize it in their daily routine.

Q3: Attempt all questions. (15 Marks)

- i. Differentiate between discrimination and prejudice and provide a real-life example. (2 Marks) → Attitude
- ii. According to Carl Rogers, if someone wants to grow with a healthy personality, there are three conditions which are to be fulfilled by the environment. What are those conditions? Name and give example of each component. (3 Marks)
- ✓ iii. Keeping in view the components of Emotional Intelligence, briefly describe any two components that relate to self (2 Marks)
- iv. What is conformity? Explain each type with the help of an example. (4 Marks)
- v. Explain Social Learning Theory with respect to Albert Bandura's perspective? (4 Marks)

Good Luck!